

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
UNION

M. 111,303
S. 213,743

APR 29 1965

Dulles Due Here Tomorrow

Allen W. Dulles, 72, will speak here tomorrow as a climax of the San Diego County Bar Association's Law Week observance.

Dulles served eight years as director of the Central Intelligence Agency and was also a member of the Warren Commission.

Dulles which investigated the assassination of President Kennedy.

He will speak at a bar association luncheon in the Terrace Room of the Community Concourse, and will be presented a key to the city by Mayor Frank Curran.

Dulles and his wife, Clover, are scheduled to arrive at 1:05 p.m. today. He will be met at Lindbergh Field by William B. Enright, president of the bar association, other association officials and press representatives.

He will hold a press conference at 3:30 p.m. at the Kona Kai Club, and he and his wife will be guests at a reception at 6:30 p.m. today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ibs Gonzales, 2174 Guy St. Gonzales is a vice president of the association.

Dulles will talk on the Justice Foundation at the luncheon.

He served with the Office of Strategic Services in Switzerland and headed the OSS mission in Germany during World War II. Dulles joined the CIA in 1951 and was appointed its director two years later. He resigned in 1961 to resume his law practice.